LETTER OF ENDORSEMENT AND COMMITMENT

Declaration of support for the European Charter of Researchers and The Code of Conducts for the Recruitment of Researchers

Siedlce University of Natural Sciences and Humanities, represented by Rector, associated professor Tamara Zacharuk, welcomes and fully supports the general values, principles and employers proclaimed in "The European Charter for Researchers" and "The Code of Conducts for the Recruitment of Researchers".

We have already begun improvements found to be in alignment with the Charter and the Code and we are excited and determined to fully support the continued development of Human resources strategy for researcher (HRS4R) at our university.
