Commitment to the European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers lukasiewicz Research Network - Institute of Innovative Technologies EMAG, represented by the Director PhD Eng Artur Kozłowski welcomes and supports the initiative of the European Commission to improve working conditions for researchers and to ensure attractive research careers within the European Research Area.

We are one of 22 institutes co-founding the lukasiewicz Research Network - one of the largest research networks in Europe. We have several decades of tradition. We started as an institute to support production processes in industry. Currently, we specialize in applied computer science, technical informatics and information technologies. The core activities of the institute are broadly understood cyber security, artificial intelligence, data analysis (including decision support systems), IoT (mainly in the areas of Industry 4.0, Smart Cities and Intelligence Building).

A continuous enhancement of working conditions and career opportunities is one of the top priorities of lukasiewicz Research Network - Institute of Innovative Technologies EMAG. We therefore welcome the opportunity of internal analysis in the framework of the HRS4R and aim at embedding this process in the wide range of current activities in the area of human resources. By implementing the Charter and Code, attracting the most outstanding researchers within the European Research Area and beyond.
