President
Andrè Stoberg-Widén

Sincerely yours,

Stockholm University

facilitated by the implementation of the Charter and Code principles within the European Researchers Area and beyond, which we believe will be the Stockholm University aims at achieving the most outstanding researchers activities in our institution’s human resources policy.

HR-S4R and aim at embedding this process in the wider array of current welcomed by the opportunity of internal analysis in the framework of the and greater opportunities, is a top priority of this university. We therefore A continuous enhancement of recruitment, promotion, working conditions international level, with an increasing international outlook.

Stockholm University is one of the leading research universities at the our institution via the Human Resources Strategy for Researchers (HR-S4R).

Code we notify you about our commitment to implement these principles in researchers on mobility. Having embraced the 6 principles of Charter and European Commission to ensure a supportive research environment for Stockholm University welcomes and supports the initiative of the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers.

Endorsement of the European Charter for Researchers and

BELGIUM
B-1049 Brussels
Open Innovation and Open Science
DG Research & Innovation
European Commission

Office of the President
Andrè Stoberg-Widén

December 1, 2023
Signed: Su-PY-096-23

Stockholm University