Endorsement of the European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers and

Notification of Commitment to complete HRS4R Process

The German Institute for Economic Research (DIW Berlin) welcomes and fully supports the recommendations of the European Commission on the European Charter and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers.

Founded in 1925, DIW Berlin is one of the leading economic research institutes in Germany. A member of the Leibniz Association, DIW Berlin is independent and primarily publicly funded. The Institute analyzes the economic and social aspects of topical issues, formulating and disseminating policy advice based on its research findings. The DIW Berlin is part of both the national and international scientific communities, provides research infrastructure to academics all over the world, and promotes the next generation of scientists.

With this letter the DIW Berlin confirms its intention and commitment to continue to engage in the effort to provide excellent working conditions and adequate career and training opportunities for researchers.

By endorsing the Charter and the Code, the DIW Berlin recognizes the value of its principles and voluntarily commits itself to applying them.

Sincerely,

Prof. Marcel Fratzscher, Ph.D.
President

Angelica E. Röhr
Managing Director
