Endorsement of the European Charter for Researchers and Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers (Charter and Code)

Cracow University of Economics welcomes and supports the initiative of the European Commission to ensure a supportive work environment for researchers.

Having endorsed the 40 principles of Charter and Code, we notify you about our commitment to implement these principles in our institution and to undergo all subsequent cycles of the implementation of the Human Resources Strategy for Researchers (HRS4R).

Cracow University of Economics is one of the leading research universities at the national level, with an increasing international outreach.

A continuous enhancement of working conditions and career opportunities for researchers is one of the top priorities of our university. We therefore are committed to conduct an in-depth internal analysis in the framework of the HRS4R and to embed its principles in the human resources policy.

By implementing the Charter and Code principles, Cracow University of Economics aims at attracting talented researchers within the European Research Area and beyond.

Yours faithfully,
