Declaration of the endorsement of the 40 principles of the European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers (Charter and Code), and commitment to start the procedure of the implementation of the Human Resources Strategy for Researchers (HRS4R).

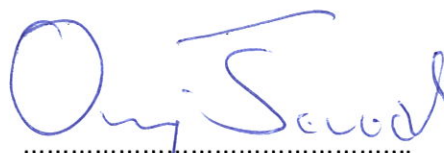

The Institute of Philosophy of the Czech Academy of Sciences (CAS) welcomes and supports the initiative of the European Commission to ensure a supportive research environment for researchers.

We hereby declare that the Institute of Philosophy of the CAS, represented by its Director, PhDr. Ondřej Ševeček, Ph.D., fully endorses the 40 principles of the European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers (Charter and Code).

It is a strong commitment to applying the 40 principles of the Charter and the Code in our institution by starting the procedure and undergoing all subsequent cycles of implementation of the Human Resources Strategy for Researchers (HRS4R) that the Institute of Philosophy of the CAS hereby demonstrates.

The Institute of Philosophy of the CAS not only supports the work and development of individual researchers, but also aims to maintain the high quality of research in general. We strongly believe that implementing the 40 principles of the Charter and the Code will contribute to further development of the European Research Area.

Kind regards,

PhDr. Ondřej Ševeček, Ph.D.
Director of the Institute
