Confirmation of our endorsement of the European Charter for Researchers and Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers (Charter and Code)

Politecnico di Torino welcomes and supports the initiative of the European Commission to ensure a free and supportive research environment in which equal opportunities and career growth can be offered to all the actors involved.

Having endorsed the 40 principles of Charter and Code since 2005 and having received the "HR Excellence in Research Award" since 2013, we confirm our strong commitment to further implement these principles in our institution via the Human Resources Strategy for Researchers (HRS4R).
