DECLARATION OF COMMITMENT TO

the European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers

The Academy of Economic Studies of Moldova (ASEM), represented by Rector, Academician, Professor, Dr.hab. Grigore Belostecinic welcomes and fully supports the initiative and the recommendation of the European Commission 2005/251/EC of 11 March 2005 on the European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers.

By endorsing the Charter and the Code of Conduct, ASEM recognizes the general values and principles and willingly commits itself to respect and promote them. The endorsement is in line with our institutional policy and with the long-term strategy and priorities for future development.

ASEM has already implemented some of the general principles and definitely further steps will be taken in order to foster international cooperation and mobility of researchers, to enhance the quality of research and innovation and to contribute to the advancement of an open and transparent labour market.

By subscribing to the principles, stipulated in the Charter and the Code, our university declares its formal commitment to act in a responsible and respectable way and to provide fair and attractive research environment conditions to researchers and contribute to the development of the European Research Area.
