Declaration of Commitment to The European Charter for Researchers and Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers

National Research and Development Institute for Non-ferrous and Rare Metals – IMNR, represented by PhD.eng. Roxana-Mioara PITICESCU as General Director, supports the initiative of the European Commission and the recommendations given in the European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers.

By endorsing the principles of the Charter and the Code of Conduct, our institute recognizes their value and commits to implementing them via the Human Resources Strategy for Researchers (HRS4R).

We are an important pillar of first-rate scientific research, having a direct impact in establishing and implementing the National Sustainable Development Strategy. Our goal is to be a regional, national, and an European competitiveness pole in the field of material science and engineering focused on non-ferrous and rare metals. Innovation, knowledge transfer and attention to our clients' needs are all at the core of our research and development activities.

By subscribing to the Charter and the Code principles our institute aims to provide an attractive research environment for all our researchers and for those willing to collaborate with us in the future.
