Declaration of Commitment of AIDFM to the European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers

Lisbon 05/03/2018

EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Research Executive Agency

Dear Sir/ Madam,

Associação para Investigação e Desenvolvimento da Faculdade de Medicina – AIDFM, having examined the recommendations and principles contained in the European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers, hereby expresses its full support for this Recommendation.

AIDFM is a non-profit scientific and technological association recognized as a legal person of public interest by March 16th 2000 and with the status of Scientific Patronage since April, 28th, 2009. Our main objective is promoting the link between the activities developed by the Faculty of Medicine of the University of Lisbon – FMUL - and the public, this includes teaching, training and research in Medicine and Biomedical Sciences. We have more than 25 years of experience promoting and supporting research. We manage two institutes: Centro Cardiovascular and Instituto de Saúde Ambiental.

On our divisions, we conduct clinical research in compliance with the best practices in the industry and all legal, national and international, requirements envisioning excellence and optimization of resources. We support postgraduate, and graduate scientific research by granting scholarships, and grants promoting the employment, and development of young researchers.

We therefore by signing this declaration, entirely endorse the Recommendations and the 40 principles of the European Charter for Researchers and Code of

Associação para Investigação e Desenvolvimento
da Faculdade de Medicina

Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers and the establishment of a common research space within Europe.

Yours sincerely

José Velosa

President
