

EURAXESS India in partnership with the Marie Curie Alumni Association (MCAA) Indian Chapter, CSIR-CSIO and TIFR Outreach

Chandigarh 6 October

About the Event

The 4th Communicating Research Out of the Lab will provide an opportunity to the finalists of the EURAXESS Science Slam India 2018 and other (young) researchers to develop their science communication skills in all disciplines and present their research in a convivial atmosphere.

Venue and Timing

6 October 2018, 9.00am to 17.30pm
CSIR - Central Scientific Instruments Organisation
Sector-30 C, Chandigarh

Programme Agenda

You will find the latest draft agenda of the programme below.

Who may attend?

Post-graduate students/researchers in Chandigarh. Event open to researchers from institutes and universities in the city or in the vicinity such as Panjab University, IISER Mohali or IIT Ropar.

Costs Free of charge to attend! Travel and accommodation support not available.

Dress code

Smart casual

Do I need to register?

Yes, registration is compulsory by latest 26 September 2018. Limited seats.

To register for the event in Chandigarh please fill the Google form here and submit.

If you have any problem registering, you may contact us at euraxess.india@gmail.com.

You will receive a confirmation e-mail from EURAXESS India between 24-30 September 2018.

Thank you for registering for this EURAXESS event!

PROGRAMME

Time	Agenda
9:00-9:30	Registration & Welcome
9:30-9:45	Opening speech Prof. R. K. Sinha, Director CSIR-CSIO
9:45-9:50	Presentation of the EURAXESS Event Dr. Samrat S. Kumar, Country Representative, EURAXESS India
9:50-12:20 with tea/ coffee 11:00-11:15	Making research communication fun and accessible Prof. Arnab Bhattacharya, TIFR Mumbai and Priyanka Dasgupta, EURAXESS Science Slam India 2017 1st prize winner <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Participants introductions and warm up games • Presentation tips and tricks • A view from the other side – Priyanka Dasgupta, EURAXESS Science Slam India first prize • EURAXESS Science Slam
12:20-12:45	EURAXESS-Researchers in Motion and EU Research Opportunities Dr. Samrat S. Kumar, Country Representative, EURAXESS India <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • EURAXESS-Supporting research careers • European Research Council Grants (ERC) – Horizon 2020 funded • Marie Skłodowska-Curie Fellowships (MSCA) – Horizon 2020 funded • Erasmus+ - EU funded
12:45-13:00	MCAA Indian Chapter – What's in for Indian researchers Dr. Praveen Kumar, Chairperson, MCAA Indian Chapter
13.00-13:45	Lunch

13:45-14:30	More examples of popularizing / communicating research: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Chai and Why, Prof. Arnab Battacharya (TIFR) • Falling Walls Lab India, Ms. Aditi Gosavi, Senior Advisor, DAAD Regional Office New Delhi • Scholar-Supervisor teamwork: A case for enhancing the PhD productivity, Dr. Rohit Y. Sharma, Indian Institute of Technology Ropar
14:30-15:30	Live performances of the Science Slam Finalists
15:30-16:30	Analysis of performances and feedback
16:30-17:00	Summary and wrap up
17.00-17.15	Vote of thanks Dr. Pooja Sharma
17:15-17:30	Closure and Feedback