

Interested in doing your doctoral research at TUM?

Join us and find out!

DestinationTUM – Doctoral Week April 12–16, 2021

Take this unique opportunity to explore the Technical University of Munich (TUM) and its research environment virtually.

The TUM Graduate School invites you to participate in this one-week event to learn more about the TUM, the Graduate School, the German academic system, as well as various options to do your doctoral research at TUM. You will have the opportunity to participate in workshops such as How to Fund Your Doctorate, How to Choose a Supervisor and on other topics related to doctoral research. During the program week, you may also participate in the virtual Career Opportunities Fair where you will have the unique opportunity to meet potential thesis supervisors virtually.

All interested Master's graduates or Master's students in their final program year are welcome to apply. Participation in the DestinationTUM – Doctoral Week is free of charge.

Apply now via our online portal until March 21, 2021!
